Entertainment

- Pyroteque. Ignite spring with a troupe of flamethrowers and fire-dancers. Once of Augusta's most unique performances, and First Friday staples, this always heats up the crowd. 8-10pm. Corner of 11th and Broad Street.
- Soul City Sirens. Augusta's roller derby gals "bring it" to Broad Street. Stop by and enjoy a mock roller derby bout. Come see the skills that make our local team a winner. 6-7:30. Corner of 11th and Broad Street.
- The Book Tavern. Open for business with Fresh Lemonade out front, with hor d'oeuvres and refreshments inside. The Book Tavern frequently has events on the street, and this month will have a selection of artists setting up out front.. 6 - 9pm. 1026 Broad Street.
- Le Chat Noir. Comedy Tonight! Dirty Girl and the Secrets start the night off right with their musical styling at 7:30pm. Schrodinger's Cat improv company gets the comedy going at 8:30pm. Doors open at 7pm. These shows SELL OUT FAST so get there early! Corner of 8th and Ellis.

Art, Shopping, Dining

- Local Arts and Craft Vendors. Take a stroll down Broad Street and see some of the unique and beautiful creations by local artisans. 5-10pm. Corner of 10th and Broad.
- Gallery on the Row. Always a hit on First Friday, the ever-open doors of this gallery invite you in for a glance. Featuring the art and photography of Carl Sue Roberts and Forrest Roberts this month, visitors can expect to treat their mouths to wine and cheese, as well as their eyes to art that reflects the varied nature of beauty in the land and buildings of the south. 5-9pm. 1016 Broad Street.
- Zimmerman Gallery. Artists Lisa Marks and Dr. Ramon Parrish will be the featured artists this month, and the usual group of Zimmerman regulars will still be on display. Stop by the gallery for an opening reception for the artists, and enjoy all of the work housed inside. 5-8pm. 1006 Broad St.
- Frameworks and Tire City Potters. Always open during First Friday, the gallery will be abuzz with exhibits and featured works. A welcoming environment, the artists are always as happy to share their art as they are to make it. 11am-11pm. 210 B 10th Street (corner of 10th and Ellis).
- Modish Salon. Open late on First Friday, the staff of Modish Salon invites you in off the streets and asks, "Is it a crime to be beautiful?" 7-9pm. 1018 Broad Street.
- Sky City. Who needs a hot tub to time travel? Just go to Sky City this First Friday for 80's night, a retrospective look back at all the things you love about America's most decadent decade. 9:30pm. 1557 Broad Street.
- Casa Blanca Cafe. Always open on First Friday and always a great place to stop off! Whether providing music themselves or just giving folks a place to sit and watch crowds or a band at the downtown clock, Casa Blanca is one of the most relaxing places you can hang out. 5-10pm. 936 Broad Street.
